X1

Since writing you my letter of November 26, I heard through the grapevine the sad news that you would be more or less permanently leaving New York for the West Coast. In any event, I hope to get a chance to see you before this takes place. 61st Street will not be the same without Greta and you.

I expect to be in New York over the New Year. Is there any chance that you will be there?

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
